

Sanctuary Everywhere

QCEA / QPSW CONFERENCE
Brussels • 1 – 3 December 2017

FRIDAY 1 DECEMBER

The conference venue and accommodation - which are in the same building - will be open from 16:00 for registration, where refreshments will be provided. You are welcome to join us from then onwards.

- 19:00 Dinner
- 20:00 Welcome from QPSW and QCEA
- 20:10 The history of Friends' work in Europe (pre-1950)
Dale Andrew (France Yearly Meeting)
Friends in the first half of the 20th century were incredibly active defenders of peace and human rights. How is their important work relevant to us today?
- 21:40 Epilogue

SATURDAY 2 DECEMBER

- 07:30 Meeting for Worship (optional)
- 08:00 Breakfast
- 09:00 Keynote address: "What role for Friends in building sanctuary everywhere?"
Marigold Bentley, Head of Peace Programme and Faith Relations, Quakers in Britain
Quaker organisations share the common goal of aiming to build communities and societies where everybody feels safe. What concrete steps are being taken to this end?
- 10:30 Break
- 11:00 Keynote address: "How to keep societies in Europe open? Populism, authoritarianism and their antidotes"
Heather Grabbe, Executive Director, Open Society European Policy Institute
Europe is currently experiencing a wave of populist politics built on xenophobia, Euroscepticism and fear. What can be done to reverse this worrying trend?
- 12:30 Lunch, followed by free time
- 15:30 The work of Quaker agencies on forced migration
Programme staff from Quaker UN Office / QPSW and QCEA
A series of short presentations and a panel discussion will explore what Quaker institutions are doing on behalf of those seeking refuge from current conflicts.
- 16:45 Workshop sessions #1 ***
- 17:45 Break
- 18:00 Workshop sessions #2 ***
- 19:00 Dinner
- 20:15 A time to reflect and share feedback on the day, leading into Meeting for Worship
- 21:30 End of the day

SUNDAY 3 DECEMBER

- 07:30 Meeting for Worship (optional)
- 08:00 Breakfast
- 09:00 Small groups: Reflection - where are we now?
- 10:00 Break
- 10:30 Closing plenary: “Faith and hope”
A practical session to explore how we can do what love requires of us, and how to overcome the fear to act when it can be difficult to do so.
Facilitator TBC
- 11:45 Wrap-up session, leading into Meeting for Worship
- 12:30 Lunch
- 13:30 End of conference

After lunch, the conference comes to an end. However, if your travel arrangements mean that you will be spending Sunday afternoon in Brussels, you are welcome to join us for the following free activities. If you wish to do so, we recommend you bring your luggage with you and collect it from Quaker House at the end of the day.

14:30 Visit to Quaker House Brussels

See QCEA's offices in person and learn more about this beautiful art nouveau house, followed by a walk past the EU headquarters en route to our next stop.

15:30 Visit to the House of European History

Opened earlier this year, the House of European History is a major museum dedicated to the common history shared by all Europeans. It tells the “shared story” of Europe through hundreds of artefacts and events dating from antiquity to the present day.

Attendees are free to spend as much time at the museum as they wish and can return to Quaker House (10 minutes' walk) to collect their bags once they have finished.

NOTES

\ The Saturday workshop sessions will consist of thematic presentations and group activities on a range of relevant issues. Each workshop will be run twice to allow attendees to attend their two preferred sessions. The exact content of the workshops will be confirmed at a later date.*

All times are Brussels time (GMT+1).

Details of venues and how to reach them by public transport will be provided prior to the event.