

The possibilities of peace education

Evidence and opportunities

Quaker
Council for European Affairs

DRAFT AGENDA

Thursday 20 May 2021

14:00-14h30: Welcome from Quakers in Britain & QCEA

14:30-15:00: Framing peace education | Tony Jenkins, Global Campaign for Peace Education

15:30-17:00: Keynote conversation: Peace education in a global context

- Sara Hagel, Peacemakers
- Teresia Wamuyu Wanchira, St Paul University, Nairobi
- Daniel Nteziyaremye, Turning the Tide Rwanda
- Concord Europe | TBC

17:30-18:00: Epilogue | A chance to reflect on the day quietly together

Friday 21 May 2021

13:00: Brown bag lunch | An informal chance for policymakers and young people to share perspectives

14:00: What young people want from peace education

14:10-14:40: Keynote address: Hans Svennevig, University College London Institute of Education

14h45 – 16h15: Panel discussion: Peace education in conflict and post-conflict contexts

- Edita Zovko, Nansen Dialogue Centre, Bosnia and Herzegovina
- Avi Goldstein, Pathways – Harvard negotiation model in Israel, Palestine and Belgium
- Nina Bagdasarova, American University of Central Asia, Kyrgyzstan
- EU Official, European Commission, Belgium

16:30-17:15: Action forum:

A time for you to share your local or individual projects.

17:30-18:00: Epilogue | A chance to reflect on the day quietly together

Saturday 22 May 2021

14:00-15:30: Peace education workshops

Parallel workshops offering practical lessons by peace education practitioners. Topics include: the policy case for peace education, positive peace in schools, race and identity based violence, peace education in the context of growing militarization and a whole school approach to peace.

BREAK

16:00-17:00: Closing plenary: Faith and hope | Quakers ask “what does love require of us?” What will we take forward from this conference?

17:30-18:00: Epilogue | A chance to reflect on the day quietly together