

Updated June 2008

CROATIA

Conscription

Compulsory military service ended on 1 January 2008, following the Croatian parliament's decision of 4 October 2007. Originally, this was planned for 2010, but was accelerated because of Croatia's application for NATO membership.